Some institutions also accept scores from other tests like the Cambridge English (CAE/CPE), iTEP, or EFAS

Always verify the exact language requirements with the specific college or university you plan to attend, as they can vary significantly by program and institution.

Score validity: Institutions require test results to be from the last two years, so ensure your test is recent.

Work Permit

Students are eligible to work part time on or off campus from day one.

- As of November 8, 2024, Study permits will automatically authorise the holder to work off campus for 24 hours per week during the academic session.
- Full-time during scheduled breaks without the need to apply for a separate work permit

Co-op Internship Programmes:

- Many of the programs have inbuilt internships of one or two semesters which provide an opportunity for the student to get first hand exposure and experience in Industry relating to his or her area of study.
- A co-op, or cooperative education program, in Canada is a structured method of combining classroom-based education with practical work experience. Students alternate between academic terms and work terms in fields related to their study programs.

- Co ops are for a semester or more and are mostly paid.
- Internships are for lesser time period i.e. 15 days to 30 days and may or may not be paid.

Scholarship Opportunities

- Scholarships in Canada are quite competitive, as they are limited in number compared to those offered by other countries.
- The eligibility for scholarships is judged based on outstanding academic grades and exceptional English Proficiency scores
- Scholarships are majorly offered at the entry level but for some scholarships the students are supposed to prove their excellence in academics in the subsequent years of education as well

We at Flag Circle assist students in securing scholarships by providing expert guidance on eligibility criteria, scholarship applications and essay writing.

We provide personalized support to ensure students apply for all eligible scholarships.
